

TOM, DEATH & HARRY

Hello,

My name is Brian Hogan, a Connecticut born filmmaker, who just finished my MFA degree in 2019 at Sacred Heart University's graduate film school (FTMA).

Tom, Death & Harry was written by my colleague and fellow film student Julian Tizian. I immediately resonated with his story and approached him to direct it as part of our film school's mandated "swap project". He enthusiastically agreed, and we turned what was once called Final Thoughts, into this new final project together, Tom, Death & Harry.

This film was made during the summer of 2018 as part of a film school curriculum. It was created with the support of FTMA, a volunteer student crew, alumni and the local community. This movie has become something I am very proud to have been a part of creating.

I am thankful to everyone who has been a part of making this film into a reality and I am thankful to you for your consideration of this film as part of your festival.

Best Regards,

Brian Hogan
